(Rapid City) The 13th annual DISC GOLF ICE BOWL was held on Saturday, February 1 at Jackson Park. 31 hardy disc golfers from across the region teed off in the annual charity event, which raised $900 for the Feeding South Dakota food bank. Scott Caesar was recognized as the leading fundraiser. Division winners were Jeff Trautman (49) in Masters, Justin Cournoyer (51) in Advanced, Tom Jacobs (52) in Grandmaster, Amy Vrana (67) in Women, Cole Subic (54) in Intermediate, Kevin Francis (55) in Recreational, and Joe Klewicki (66) in Juniors.

Since 2001, the Rapid City Ice Bowl has raised over $9,400 for local charities. Official Ice Bowls are played at disc golf courses all over the United States, and in Canada and Europe in a corridor that runs this year from January 4-February 23. Each event finds a charity to support. The Ice Bowl charitable fundraising goal for 2014 is $325,000 worldwide. In 2013, over $310,000 was raised at 240 Ice Bowls.

Weather at the annual winter event has ranged from bitter to balmy, as the event motto is “no wimps or whiners allowed” regardless of the conditions, and the event cannot be cancelled for weather.
